Your Kingdom Come by Sherah-Leigh Gerber

God of all creation and transformation—
Thank you for your love and care for us,
In this stretching season, when much feels uncertain and sad,
We remember that our hope is in you.

When our own words fail, when we become blinded by our own concerns and needs, we turn to the words that Jesus taught us, praying—

Our loving parent God, Hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, Your will be done, On earth as it is in heaven.
We desire to see your reign, your justice, and your transformation in all places. Open our eyes, our hearts, and our minds to this work—to join with, to bear witness, and to testify to your good news made known.

Give us this day our daily bread
We lift before you our needs for daily survival.
We lift those in need of your healing touch.
May we not hoard or worry but trust in your provision of enough for each circumstance.

And forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us
We confess our transgressions to you, Lord (silence).
We release the grudges and unforgiveness in our own hearts, by the power of your Spirit.

Lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory.
Forever and ever, Amen.
