Welcome

Call to Worship

Listen. Creation is singing!

Listen carefully.

Creation is singing a song of joy and peace.

We are created beings, all of us—

Born of a creator who inspires us to work together to regenerate life in every part of our common home.

Listen. Creation is singing a song of joy and peace, healing and transformation, that we can embrace as our vocation.

Together, let us celebrate the eternal promise of an eternal
God—the promise of shalom.

Josh will explore with us what it means for congregations to meet God in the places we experience challenges, grief and weakness. The course will trace historical approaches to church from the New Testament era to today. How do we be church where Jesus calls us together in our hurts and needs for the healing and hope of the world. If you would like the link to the recordings and can't make it to the class Wednesday please let Elaine know so that she can email you the link.
